OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

The President and the "Representative Men" of Different Sections---The President Firm in His Determination---His Policy of Restoration---The Supreme Court and its Probable Action on the Amendment.

[CORRESPONDENCE RICHMOND EXAMINER.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.

Quite a newspaper sensation has been excited, in these dull holidays, by the reported conversation between certain representative men, of different sections, and the President. On the part of the President, the report of Mr. Eggleston, Radical member from Ohio, is indignantly discredited. Mr. Eggleston must have been misreported himself, or have misunderstood the President.

The President was never so firmly fixed, and never so well supported, in his determination to abide by his own policy of restoration as he is now. His conversations since the commencement of this session, have exhibited that. He has, to several prominent men, in free remarks upon the situation, expressed entire confidence in the ultimate triumph of his policy of restoration.

But his message, three or four weeks ago, proves beyond question that he has not changed his position. What the President did say was evidently misunderstood in regard to the adoption of the constitutional amendment. The President knows that the amendment will prevail, and how? By the assumption that three-fourths of the State Legislatures of States now represented, shall alone be required for adoption, and that then it shall be enforced under the fifth article. The President admitted this, probably, in his remarks, and added that the Supreme Court would pronounce the act as unconstitutional.

I may add to this explanation the fact that the President and many other properly informed persons feel very confident that the United States Supreme Court will unanimously pronounce an act of Congress to render a less number than that of three-fourths of the State Legislatures competent for an amendment of the Constitution illegal and unconstitutional.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

GOVERNOR PATTON AND THE PRESIDENT.

Governor Patton, of Alabama, had an interview with the President to-night. His visit to Washington is in obedience to a request of a public meeting held at Florence, in his State, in which it was declared that if no better terms could be offerred the South, they would favor the ratification of the Howard amendment.—World.

DECISION ON THE TEST OATH AGREED UPON.

It is understood that the Supreme Court have agreed upon a decision upon the constitutionality of the test oath. The question came up on the cases presented in regard to the exaction of the oath from attorneys, of which there were several under consideration by the court.—The court has decided by a vote of five to four against the constitutionality of the oath. The opinions will probably be read on Monday next if Judge Grier should be able to be in attendance. It is understood that each of the judges will render a seperate opinion.—Washington Star, 29th.

A DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.

The Treasury Department detectives have obtained possession of one of the most dangerous counterfeits in circulation. The note is a fine imitation of the fifty-dollar legal-tender with the vignette likeness of Alexander Hamilton, and is an exact counterpart of the genuine, except some slight errors in engraving. The easiest way to detect the counterfeit is by observing the marginal line of the figures running around the back of the note. In the lower left-hand corner will be observed the figures 550 instead of 50, as in the genuine. The mark is quite plain, and will insure detection of the counterfeit. A large number of these notes are in circulation. Trusting the general appearance of the note will not avail, as the most skillful have been deceived by it.—Ib.

BUTLER ALL READY TO IMPEACH SOMEBODY.

Ben Butler has arrived, as the Radicals expected, and will probably remain till Congress re-assembles. He is in favor of Ashley's resolutions looking to impeachment. They will probably be introduced the first day the House meets.—Ib.

THIS IS THE LAST DAY.

Deeds dated between the 1st. of October, 1862, and the 2d. of May, 1865, are required to be stamped prior to the first of January, 1867, to avoid the penalty, and may be stamped by any party interested, and the record corrected accordingly. After the 1st. of January, deeds not stamped at the date of execution can only be stamped upon application to the District Collector of Internal Revenue.

THE SOUTH AND ITS PURPOSE.

Advices received last evening from a number of prominent politicians at the South are entirely unanimous in the assertion that it is the fixed determination of the Southern States to continue in their present passive political condition, rejecting not only the constitutional amendment of the last session of Congress, but also all other amendments that would deprive them of or deny them their just rights as members of the Union.—Times.

MASONIC FAIR.

President Johnson visited the Masonic Fair last evening, and was received with Masonic honors. The President was presented to the Knights of the Washington Commandery, and, after a brief inspection of the fair-room, returned to the White House.—Nat. Int.

PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS IN THE SURRATT TRIAL.—In anticipation of the trial of Surratt in this District, Mr. Representative Williams, of Pennsylvania, will report from the Judiciary Committee early next month his bill relating to the section of jurors for the several courts of the District. It takes the power of summoning jurors out of the hands of the Marshal, and vests it in any other person who may be selected for the purpose by the court. In other words, it allows the Judge to form such a jury as he may think proper.—Wash. Cor, Phil. Age, Dec. 27.

WILSON MALE AND FEMALE HIGH SCHOOL,

WILSON, N. C.

THIS School will open the Second Monday in January, in the large and commodious buildings formerly occupied by Dr. Deems.

The Principal has associated with him Professor AVERETT and LADY, of Halifax County, Virginia. Professor AVERETT is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He is a teacher of many years experience—was Professor of Mathematics in the Danville Female College until he resigned his position to take his place in the Confederate army. He is known to be a ripe scholar and an accomplished gentleman.—Mrs. AVERETT is also well known, both in Virginia and North Carolina, as a successful teacher, in both the Literary and Music Departments of the best Female Schools.

In a word, the Principal has resolved to make this School all that it professes to be, viz: a High School of the first grade. In order to this, he has employed only such teachers as are known to be accomplished scholars, and who have established a reputation as successful instructors.

The number of pupils will not hereafter be limited; and additional teachers will be employed so soon as the patronage will justify it.

The Music Department will be committed to Mrs. AVERETT, who will be assisted by Mrs. ARRINGTON.

All the teachers will reside in the College Buildings. Young ladies can obtain board with the Principal, and boys can secure board with private families in the town.

The session will comprise twenty weeks. The terms per session will be—

Memorials to Congress.

When bad and malignant men set to work to accomplish an evil object, they do not scruple at the means they employ. This has been amply illustrated in the conduct of those individuals in our midst, who are seeking to gratify a mean revenge upon the great majority of their fellow-citizens, for no other reason than that they have refused to promote their selfish and unhallowed ambition. Their whole course, which has been characterized by utter shamelessness, profligacy and meanness, has at last reached its culminating point. Not being able to inveigle, wittingly, any decent white men into the support of their abominable and wicked schemes, they have resorted to the poor deluded negro as a more congenial ally,—the very negro whose worst enemy they have heretofore been, but whom they are willing to court and embrace in order to vent their hate upon their own color and kindred. We are informed by a gentleman who has seen one of them, numerously signed, in the shop of a colored huckster, that printed memorials (of course gotten up at the Standard office) are in circulation among the negroes of this city, and doubtless throughout the State, praying Congress to establish a "loyal civil government in North Carolina!" When these shall have been duly signed by every negro in the State, who can be taught to "make his mark," they will doubtless be forwarded by Holden to Stevens, who will, in his turn, present them to Congress as embodying the voice of so many thousand citizens of North Carolina! For all this we cannot so much blame the negro, however much we may deprecate the injury that it is certain to work him. The idea of being asked to sign, or to allow his name to be put to a paper addressed to Congress, which is to bring about some great imaginary benefit to himself, is sufficient, of itself, to tickle his weak fancy and excite vague hopes. But what words of scorn, detestation and contempt are severe enough for the white men, (in color only) who are using such agencies to destroy the government of our good old State and proscribe and degrade their neighbors!

This is not all: We are reliably informed by a public officer of high respectability in an adjoining county, that these "Memorials" have been sent out from the Standard office into every Captain's district, and that signatures are sought to be obtained in the following manner: The ignorant, who never see a newspaper, are approached with the assertion that Holden has recently been to Washington, seeking to rescue what little land, or other property, they may have, from confiscation, and that he has received assurances that only those shall be spared who will sign "this paper"—handing the party the Memorial!

We lay these facts before the people and call the attention of Congress to them. We beg our friends throughout the State to watch for these incendiary papers and communicate any facts concerning them that may come to their knowledge.

It would be to question the existence of such a thing as retributive justice, to doubt that the political villainy now being practiced in North Carolina will go unpunished. The miserable agents of treason in this State are gathering up for themselves a store of ineffable infamy.

Gold has declined in New York to thirty-four and a half, and it is the opinion, in financial quarters, that it will fall still farther. One of the causes of the decline is that Wall street has ceased to be agitated by the Radical thunder from Congress. The movements of that body, looking to the impeachment of the President, the abrogation of the State governments, and the concentration of the Federal power in the legislative department, are idle and absurd.—The impotence of the body for mischief, as well as its incapacity for good, are now well understood. The sense of the public will check the revolutionary tendencies of Congress. Therefore, gold will fall, and the currency will appreciate, and the government securities continue to maintain their credit at home and abroad, at least till Congress shall accomplish some of its destructive projects.

Financial men have also discovered that the many movements in Congress against the conservative financial policy of the Administration will, in the end, come to naught, and that the currency will certainly not be increased, nor, to any injurious extent, contracted.

Another operative cause for the decline of the price of gold is that the Bank of England has reduced its rate of interest to three and a half per cent., which shows that gold is not wanted there, and further shipments of gold from this country need not be expected at present—certainly not to an amount exceeding the receipts of coin and bullion from the Pacific.

The above views of the National Intelligencer agree with the general sentiments of financial men of the North. Intelligent men everywhere attribute the present appreciation of our green backs and government securities to the growing impression that ultra radicalism will not triumph.

The Standard, whose knowledge of finance is about equal to its statesmanship holds the following opinion:

"It will be seen that gold in New York has fallen to 133. Pass Mr. Stevens' bill to reorganize the insurgent States, and it will soon be down to 120."

A FAIR HIT.—We learn that a colored man in this city, a few days ago, giving a gentleman a description of the intended celebration of the 1st. of January by the blacks, explained why it was that they had invited Mr. Such and Such-a one to address them. He began with Holden. "Ob course," says he, "we invited Mr. Holden; we colored folks thinks that he is one ob us!" Appreciative darkey!

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says that an eminent member of the House is said to be preparing articles of impeachment for several Judges of the Supreme Court.

Arraying Classes.

The charge which arrant demagogues have so delighted to roll as a sweet morsel under their tongues, i. e. that Southern slaveholders, and men of means among us, were proud, overbearing aristocrats, brow-beaters and haters of the negro and the poor whites, never had any proper foundation. There never was a community, perhaps, who felt more the obligations of society and the mutual dependence of each other, than the people of North Carolina.—Honest, virtuous poverty is no where more respected than among our people of all classes.—An honest, virtuous negro, or white person, has the sympathy and confidence of every one, and certainly the integrity and virtue found among the blacks, since their freedom, are not less highly estimated. Indeed, where any of our colored people have shown, since their emancipation, that their virtue has resisted the seductions of the state of demoralization which has surrounded them, the confidence and friendship shown by the whites are universal. And now that poverty stares almost every man in the face, there is no reason, whatever, for the shameless efforts made by some, to array one class of society against another.

The efforts of the Standard, since the close of the war, to use, without stint, every effort to array the Northern people against the South, and to embitter their feelings against us, by its false and damaging publications, deserve the severest reprehension; but even this does not merit as severe condemnation as the efforts of that paper, and the personal remarks of its Editor to plain, honest people, to prejudice them and the blacks against those who are only guilty of the offence of opposing its wicked efforts. What else can it mean by its frequent remarks, threatening those, who have anything left, with confiscation and the division of their effects among the poor whites and blacks?—What else can it desire, but the utter poverty and degradation of those who have had the good fortune to preserve a little of what they had, amid the wreck of their fortunes? Can anything be more transcendently mean than this?

We are glad to know that respectable poor people, and really sensible blacks, scorn such wickedness. On several occasions, since Mr. Holden's return from Washington, we have heard of his approaching our honest people, and, after the usual salutations, saying, "Now, sir, there is a prospect of us poor white people and negroes getting our rights." In most instances, we are pleased to know, he has met with cold comfort. The truth is, Mr. H. does not want justice or right. Like all sinners, he wants mercy. If he were to get justice, he would be gone!

PIETY OF THE STANDARD.—When Holden is patriotic, he mounts his horse and calls Parson Brownlow "that glorious old patriot," and when he feels piously inclined, he vents his fury and wrath against the Senior Editor of the Sentinel. Our excellent associate, the other day, prepared a casual local notice about the Christmas holidays, which, by the way, the Senior did not see until it was published, and forthwith Holden grows pious, talks about his respect for the Church and the ministry, and about charity, until he works himself into a perfect rage at the Senior. Holden scarcely ever goes to Church, and his love for the clergy his readers fully understand. Wonder if he would ever think of them, if we, the Senior, did not now and then put our poniard in his gizzard? We have hope of Holden yet. He may be reclaimed from his backslidings, unless the Senior abandons the press.

A Voice from the Middle Ages.

"About the year 1316, the friends of Dante succeeded in obtaining his restoration to his country and his possessions, on condition that he should pay a certain sum of money, and, entering church, there avow himself guilty, and ask pardon of the Republic. The following was his answer on the occasion, to one of his kinsmen: 'From your letter, which I received with due respect and affection, I observe how much you have at heart my restoration to my country. I am bound to you the more gratefully, that an exile rarely finds a friend. But, after mature consideration, I must, by my answer, disappoint the wishes of some little minds; and I confide in the judgment to which your impartiality and prudence will lead you. Your nephew and mine has written to me, what indeed had been mentioned by many other friends, that, by a decree concerning the exiles, I am allowed to return to Florence, provided I pay a certain sum of money, and submit to the humiliation of asking and receiving absolution; wherein, I see two propositions that are ridiculous and impertinent. Is such an invitation to return to his country glorious for Dante, after suffering in exile almost fifteen years? Far from the man who is familiar with philosophy, be the senseless baseness of a heart of earth, that could do like a little sciolist, and imitate the infamy of some others, by offering himself up as it were in chains. Far from the man who cries aloud for justice, this compromise, by his money, with his persecutors. No, this is not the way that shall lead me back to my country. But I shall return with hasty steps, if you or any other can open to me a way that shall not derogate from the fame and honor of Dante; but it by no such way Florence can be entered, then Florence I shall never enter. What! shall I not everywhere enjoy the sight of the sun and stars? and may I not seek and contemplate, in every corner of the earth under the canopy of Heaven, consoling and delightful truth, without first rendering myself inglorious, nay infamous, to the people and republic of Florence? Bread, I hope, will not fail me.'"

Napoleon has a kidney disease; Victor Emanuel a paralyzed right arm; Bismark is sick; the Empress Carlotta crazy; the hair of both the Emperor of Austria and the Queen of Hanover has turned gray within a year; the Pope weeps day and night, and Victoria still broods over the past with profound melancholy. Who wouldn't wear a crown?—Ex.,

FORTRESS MONROE, December 30.—A difficulty occurred in Hampton last night among a party of negroes, who made an attack on a store to revenge one being shot while endeavoring to steal. They were dispersed by the military.

"Dar are," said a sable orator, addressing his bretheren, "two roads to dis world. De one am a broad and narrow road, dat leads to perdition; de oder a narrow and broad road, dat leads to sure destruction."

"If dat am de case," said a sable hearer, "dis cullud indiwidual takes to de woods."

Extracts from the First Report of the Public Treasurer to the Legislature of North Carolina.

The pressure on our columns has been so great as to render it impossible to publish the report of Kemp P. Battle, Esq., on the Finances of the State. The report contains many valuable statistics in regard to the public debt, which may not interest the general reader, and which would occupy more space than we can now afford. We give some extracts:

To the General Assembly of North Carolina:

I have the honor to submit the accompanying report of the operations of this department since the inauguration of the permanent State government, January 1st, 1866.

Table A exhibits the public accounts. The large aggregates of the debits and credits result from the requirement of the Funding Act of March 10th, 1866, that I shall sell the new bonds, and with the proceeds discharge the past due bonds and coupons, in consequence of which the entries are made on the fiction of an actual sale and payment, instead of a mere exchange of securities.

The small amount of public taxes paid in, arises from the postponement by the General Assembly of the return day, from the 1st of October to 1st November, subsequently by the Convention to 1st January, 1867.

CONVENTION TAXES.

Table B exhibits the returns of the taxes under the Revenue Ordinance of the Convention. Total $231,123 02. This sum will be hereafter, to some extent, increased. In several Counties, i. e., Pasquotank, Burke, and Jackson, no person was qualified as collector of taxes under the Ordinance, and by Act of Assembly the present Sheriffs were charged with the duty, with directions to make returns when the other State taxes are payable into the Treasury.

Again, sundry persons have refused to answer as to their liability to taxes under said Ordinance, on the ground, that for business done, while martial law prevailed, they could not legally be taxed under authority of the State. Cases of indictment under the Ordinance are now pending in our Supreme Court, and involve important questions as to the powers of the Convention in enforcing the Revenue Laws during the year 1865.

Table C contains the accounts of the Literary Fund.

PUBLIC DEBT.

There is a very great interest manifested at home and abroad in the financial condition of North Carolina. At the same time, I am convinced from the numerous letters to my department for information, that the absorbing events of the last six years have left in the minds of but few of our people an accurate remembrance of the public debt, and of the public assets. I think it proper, therefore, to enter more into detail on these subjects than has heretofore been usual, that it may be known precisely where we stand.

Table D contains a descriptive list of the bonds outstanding against the State, dated prior to May 20th, 1861, and since 1865. Total amount, $11,433,000; the amount of annual interest on which is $685,950. Adding the estimated amount of interest due on said debt, still unfunded, say $1,600,000, up to and inclusive of October 1st, 1866, we have the total ante-war and post-war debt, on 1st October, 1866, $13,033,000. The exact amount of interest unfunded cannot be ascertained, because coupons of old bonds and of those issued during the war, were paid during the war, without a separate record being kept of the amounts of each, but the above estimate is believed to be accurate.

* * * * * * *

Here follow statistics of the public debt in detail, which we omit:

While on this subject, I will state that many of the old bonds, for various reasons, have endorsements on them which injuriously affect their sale, commonly called "scratched bonds."—Many of these endorsements were under the registration law of 1856-'57; nearly all were made with a view to security from loss. In my judgment, it would be to the interest of the State, to give in exchange to all bona fide holders of these "scratched bonds," new bonds of longer dates, on payment by the holder of a small sum to cover the expenses of the new issue.

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT BONDS ISSUED DURING THE WAR.

Table E is a descriptive list of the bonds issued for Internal Improvement purposes during the late war, dated since May 20th, 1861, and prior to the year 1866, amounting to $1,189,000. These are coupon bonds, payable, principal and interest, in Raleigh, in "good and lawful money of the Confederate States of America."

We omit here the details, showing for what purposes these bonds were issued. The Treasurer says:

The above mentioned bonds (except those for the Chatham Railroad Company) were issued under acts passed before the war. All were used in prosecution of our works of Internal Improvements. Many of these were issued when currency was less depreciated than at the present time. Nearly all being unsaleable, are held by our own citizens. It is but just that new bonds should be given in exchange for them on such terms as may be right.

Table F exhibits the year of maturity of the bonds of the State dated prior to May 20th, 1861, and since the year 1865, and where payable. From this table it appears, that in the fiscal years of 1867 and 1868, $56,000 will become due, to wit: $15,000, on April 1st, 1867, and $41,000, on January 1st, 1868.

Table G shows the Bonds and Treasury notes issued during the war, for general purposes, and Table H, debts not funded, to Banks and individuals.

Bonds,	$ 12,871,500,00
Treasury Notes,	5,246,336,25
Banks, &c.,	508,423,00
Total,	$ 18,626,259,25

Of this amount $1,000,000 are reported by Mr. John White, former State Agent, as being on special deposit in the Manchester and County Bank, Manchester, England, having never been used for the purpose for which they were issued, i. e. as collaterals in negotiating loans.

The Sinking Fund has to its credit in war bonds, $2,372,500, and $130,000 were redeemed during the war, by sale of the Steamer Advance.

Deducting these items, aggregating $3,502,500, we have, as far as is exhibited by the books of the Treasury, the debt of the State, contracted during the war, for general purposes, outstanding, $15,123,759,25. The loans contracted abroad for blockade operations, were not negotiated through this Department, and I have no official information of their amount.

It is impossible to designate the various objects for which the above debt was contracted. Proceeds of sales of Bonds, Treasury notes, taxes, &c., were paid out of the Treasury, indiscriminately, for all purposes, civil and military. Some issues were made in payment of old bonds and coupons of the State maturing, others for salaries of judicial and other civil officers, and others in support of our charitable institutions. Some $2,000,000 of notes, which can be identified, were paid out towards the support of indigent families of Soldiers. In some cases the securities, issued for objects not in aid of the war, can be identified, but for the most part, it is impossible to prove for what purpose they left the Treasury.

STOCKS AND BONDS OF THE STATE.

Table I. gives a statement of the stocks and securities held by the State, viz: Stocks in Rail Road and Canal Companies, $5,934,500. Bonds with interest on various corporations, $3,412,955-22. Total $9,347,455,22.

Mr. Battle here gives a minute description of the character of these various securities, under what acts issued, most valuable for reference. He continues:

I have given a full statement of the liabilities of the State, and of the assets for which these liabilities mostly were created. It will be noticed that the annual interest, even after the past due bonds and coupons are funded, and if the bonds issued during the war to the Rail Road Companies be included, will not exceed $866,000.

The stocks and bonds held by the State, amount to $9,347,455,22. Many of which, under the revival of travel and production, will contribute to relieve the public burden. A State as great in all the resources which swell a nation's wealth, when capital shall regain confidence, and give its potent aid to industry, will bear this small tax, not one third of one per cent of the $300,000,000 of our property, without perception of its weight.

Whether the State has sufficiently recovered from the losses of the late disastrous struggle, and the embarrassments caused by the sudden change of the labor system, to be able to enter now, on the regular payment of the interest on the Public debt, rests peculiarly within the knowledge, and within the decision of the representatives of the people, who are familiar with their condition.

I know you will realize the importance of an early return to a prompt fulfillment of our obligations. By every consideration of enlightened public policy, by regard to the pecuniary and social standing of our citizens, wherever in the civilized world the pursuit of business or pleasure may lead them, in respect to the fair name of North Carolina, whose plighted world only the sternest necessity has ever been able to break, we are bound as soon as God gives us the strength, to redeem, our promise.

The vast wealth of our Western counties, now locked up within their rocky barriers, appeal to us not to let our railroads come to disgraceful ruin, after penetrating to the base of the mountains they were designed to cross.

The benefits of the works already built by the credit of the State, are immeasurably greater than the capital stock which represents their cost. They have added millions to our taxable property. They still transport to the markets of the world the work of our hands and the produce of our soil. They are every day becoming stronger for future developement.—All nations which desire not to fall behind in the march of civilization are toiling to multiply and extend such highways. When we are ready to cast away these aids to progress, and have no share in the victories of science and industry over the material world, then we may ingloriously throw aside all care for our fast increasing debt, until its accumulated weight is too grievous for our strength.

FUNDING ACT OF MARCH 10TH., 1866.

Table J exhibits in detail the operations of this department, in executing the above Act.—Under this law, new six per cent. coupon bonds, dated January 1st., 1866, interest payable at the National Bank of Republic in the city of New York, semi-annually, on the 1st. day of July and January of each year, have been issued in exchange for bonds and coupons of bonds, issued under Acts passed prior to May 20th., 1861, to the amount of $1,425,000 on October 1st., 1866.

The Act requires me to sell the new Bonds, at not less than par, and with the proceeds pay the past due bonds and interest, and the entries on the books of this department are according to this fiction.

The effect is to require interest to be charged from January 1st., 1866, on the new bonds, but to allow none on the coupons offered in exchange. This produces many complaints, holders contending that coupons due January 1st., 1866, and anterior thereto, should justly bear interest in the same manner, as by the Act, past due bonds bear interest from maturity until paid.

The construction of the law, adopted by me, is in accordance with the settled practice of this department for many years. In deference to holders of coupons, whose position is, I think, reasonable, I bring the matter to your attention, as in your power only lies the remedy.

As the operation of the Act is on the fiction of an actual payment for the new bonds, I felt bound to require applicants for the exchange to pay the accrued interest in coupons or currency. In this way, $1,409,99 in currency have been received, which is deposited in the Treasury.

EXCHANGE OF STOCKS FOR BONDS.

The ordinance of the Convention, ratified 16th. of June, 1866, entitled, "An Ordinance to exchange the Stocks of the State for bonds issued prior to May 21st., 1861," required me to advertise in such newspapers as I should select, for sealed proposals for the exchange of stocks, bonds and other interests, held by the State, for the principal bonds issued before the 20th. of May, 1861.

Accordingly, I advertised in newspapers in different portions of this State, Virginia, Washington, New York, Baltimore and Boston, for such exchange, fixing the day for opening bids, as late as November 1st., 1866, in order that parties desirous of making the exchange might have opportunity of seeing the annual reports by the different Rail Road and other corporations, whose stocks were offered. The bids were opened in presence of the Governor and Comptroller, as directed by law. The only stock for which offers were made, was that of the Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road Company; the whole of which was taken at an aggregate premium of $3,333,87½.

Table M. shows the names of the successful bidders and the premiums offered.

As the bonds secured by liens held by the State are in part transactions had during the war, I have postponed the offering them for exchange under the law, until I could lay the matter before you, that the interest claimed by the State may be ascertained, and declared by you, if you think advisable. I respectfully recommend that these transactions be validated on such terms as may be deemed just to the State and to the holders of securities, issued for Internal Improvement purposes during the war.

AGRICULTURAL LAND SCRIP.

In compliance with the Act of Assembly, entitled "An Act to authorize the Public Treasurer to receive and invest the land scrip donated to this State, for the establishment of an Agricultural College," I commissioned Hon. D. L. Swain to proceed to Washington and procure the issue. In this he was successful, and on the 8th day of August, 1866, the scrip was forwarded to Raleigh, and is now in the Treasury.

Under the act of Congress granting the scrip, the States, who have no public lands, within their limits, are not allowed to locate their scrip, but must sell the same. The act of Assembly directs the Public Treasurer to sell the scrip, "by and with the advice and consent of the Governor." In view of the depressed state of the land market, fifty cents per acre being the usual selling price for large amounts, the Governor did not advise a sale, but preferred to leave the matter open for your action, which course met with my approval.

THE EYE AND EAR.

DR. GARDNER, the celebrated Oculist and Aurist, is now at the Exchange Hotel where he can be consulted for deafness and all diseases of the Eye. The Doctor has performed several cures since he has visited Raleigh, therefore those who require Medical or Surgical aid for defective Light or Hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief by going and consulting DR. GARDNER.

Miss Anne Lovejoy's School will also commence at the same time.

Oliver Ditson & Co., Musical Publishers, announce a new Music Book for Grammar Schools.

The session of 1867, of the 'Bingham School,' whose reputation needs no endorsement at our hands, begins on the 6th. of March.

See card of Garrett, Young, Scott & Co., manufacturers and wholesale dealers in Men and Boys' Clothing, New York. This is a most reliable firm. Send on your orders.

SALE OF THE OLD GUION HOTEL.—This property was sold, in this city, to-day, we learn, for the sum of $12,000. Dr. F. J. Haywood was the purchaser.

NOTWITHSTANDING the inclemency of the weather, the freedmen were out in considerable numbers this morning, in celebration of the anniversary of emancipation. They marched in orderly and decorous procession through the streets, and were briefly addressed by Gov. Worth, Col. Bomford and others.

FINE HAM.—We are indebted to our friend Jordan Womble, Esq., for a fine ham for our New Year's dinner. It is a superb one, and they may be obtained at all times at Mr. Womble's grocery, with any other good article in his line. Mr. W. is a capital judge of good bacon.

PROPOSALS FOR MAILS.—The Sentinel has been selected by the Post Office Department of the United States as its advertising medium for North Carolina. This has been the result of no application on our part, or the part of any of our friends. The Proposals for conveying the Mails have been received and will appear in a few days.

THOS. H. ELLISON, Esq., of Washington, N C., died suddenly, of apoplexy, in his room at the National Hotel, New York, on the 17th. ult. His remains have been brought home for interment. Mr. Ellison was a high-toned gentleman, much respected by a large acquaintance.

Good for North Carolina.

We are heartily glad to see that our friends in the North Carolina Legislature have, as we suggested, taken the necessary steps to stamp some of the monstrous falsehoods recently promulgated by bad and designing men with official contradiction; it will be remembered that we have already published abstracts of several Munchausen-like letters which purported to give accounts of the persecutions of Union men in North Carolina, and the partial decisions of the Judiciary of that State, which consists of a body of as pure and upright Judges as adorn the bench in this country. We are glad to see that several of these epistolary Daniels, risen to judgement, have been summoned before a Committee of the Legislature and examined, in order to obtain the facts upon which their statements were based. When confronted with the committee Mr. Blythe and his companions of the Red String fraternity were unable to substantiate their base assertions, and stand before their fellow-citizens in the ignominious attitude of deliberate falsifiers and calumniators.

This action of the North Carolina Legislature deserves applause, and we trust every fellow who dares hereafter to assail either the people or Judiciary of any Southern State will be hunted up by Legislative action and examined as to the truth of his statements.

If grievances exist redress can be afforded, and if lies have been told their authors can be held up to public scorn.—Norfolk Day Book.

IS ALABAMA A STATE OR A TERRITORY?—The question of the status of the Southern States lately in rebellion is about to come before the United States Supreme Court for decision. A man named Jordan was recently brought before the Federal District Court sitting in Montgomery, Alabama, on a charge of felony, and having been found guilty was sentenced, by Judge Busteed, to twenty-one years imprisonment.—His counsel have determined to apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that Alabama is not a State, but a territory, and as such Judge Busteed's District Court had no legal status. The matter will thus be brought fairly and squarely before the learned judges of our highest judicial tribunal, and, if they will meet the question openly and render a plain decision, we may expect a solution of what is now a very complicated political subject.—New York Herald.

A Philadelphia Judge of one of the higher courts of that city has decided that negroes have no right to ride in the street cars, if the companies thinks proper to exclude them.

Ex-Senator C. C. Clay has returned home after a protracted absence, to find his property libelled for confiscation at the instance of the United States District Court for North Alabama.

A sister of a late Governor of Kentucky died a few days ago in a station-house in Cincinnatti, of congestion of the brain. She was a miserable drunkard.

Supreme Court—Decision relative to Military Tribunals.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.

The opinion of the minority delivered by Judge Chase, and that of the majority by Judge Davis, are published. It is impossible to telegraph it entire, and the arguments are so close that a synopsis would do injustice to the learned judges. The only point, in addition to those already telegraphed, is that Chase maintains that Congress can relieve members of the illegal tribunals from personal responsibility in damages at the hands of those whom they punished.

In Judge Davis' elaborate opinion, the following paragraph appear:

"It can never be, in this country of written constitutions and laws, with a judicial department to interpret them, that any Chief Magistrate would be so far forgetful of his duty as to order the execution of a man, who denies the jurisdiction that tried and convicted him, after his case was before Federal Judges with power to decide it; who, being unable to agree on the grave questions involved, had, according to known law, sent it to the Supreme Court of the United States for decision. But even the suggestion is injurious to the Executive and we dismiss its further consideration. There is, therefore, nothing to hinder this Court from an investigation of the merits in this controversy. And no graver questions were ever considered by this Court, nor one which more nearly concerns the rights of the whole people; for it is the birth right of every American citizen, when charged with crime, to be tried and punished according to law, &c.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctor and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Hardick to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER, Notary Public, Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL: I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS, 116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY, 27 Pitt Street.

New York, April 7, 1865.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY, 119 Goerick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals.

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

RANDOLPH MACON COLLEGE, VIRGINIA.

IN FULL OPERATION.

THIS TIME-HONORED INSTITUTION IS ONCE more in successful operation, with a FULL CORPS OF PROFESSORS. The chairs of the several schools are filled by able and experienced men. There are five literary and scientific schools, viz: of ANCIENT LANGUAGES, MATHEMATICS, CHEMISTRY and NATURAL PHILOSOPHY, MORAL PHILOSOPHY and MODERN LANGUAGES. In addition to the above the Board of Trustees have established a school of Commercial Science, with the view of giving to the young men of the country a Business Education.

To graduates in all these schools, Diplomas are granted; and the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts are conferred upon students who accomplish a certain course. The high grade of scholarship formerly required is still maintained. We have a full Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus for the illustration of the subjects taught.

The location of the College is unsurpassed for health and geniality. It is situated midway between the mountains and the seaboard; and during a career of thirty-three years, and with thousands of young men in attendance, there has never been a death arising from malaria or other local cause. We profess to educate young men not only mentally and morally but physically also.

BOARD IS SIXTEEN DOLLARS PER MONTH.

Tuition from $40 to $60, according to the number of schools attended. $250 will cover expenses of board, tickets for three schools, matriculation and contingent fees for ten months.

Rooms in the College free of charge, but the student provides his own furniture, fuel and lights.—Young men who are preparing for the ministry and those disabled by the late war who are unable to pay their tuition, will be allowed to attend any or all of the schools free of charge.

This College is situated near Boydton, the county seat of Mecklenburg county, Va.

Arrangements are made to transport students from Ridgway Depot, on the Raleigh and Weldon Railroad, whilst a conveyance leaves Roanoke station, on the Richmond and Danville Railroad, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and the Wolf Trap Depot, on the same road, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

We solicit a liberal patronage from Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina, from the West, South and Southwest.

Students will be received at any time. The second term will commence on the 6th. day of February next. Young men will be received and prepared for the College proper.

For further particulars address the undersigned at Boydton, Mecklenburg county, Va.

The Little Boy that Died.

The announcement just made through private sources of the death of Joshua D. Robinson, in San Antonia, Texas, carries much sadness with it. He removed to Texas some years since and embarked in agricultural pursuits. He possessed unmistakable genius, and promised eminence as a writer, but mercantile pursuits first diverted his attention from letters, and he gave small evidence of ability to the world. The principal published poem of his, "The Little Boy that Died," found its way to every heart, and we can give no better to tribute to his memory than to republish it entire:

I am all alone in my chamber now,
And the midnight hour is near,
And the fagg'ts crack, and the clock's dull tick,
Are the only sounds I hear;
And over my soul, in its solitude,
Sweet feelings of sadness glide;
For my heart and my eyes are full; when I think
Of the little boy that died.

I went one night to my father's house—
Went home to the dear ones all,
And softly I opened the garden gate,
And softly the door of the hall;
My mother came out to meet her son,
She kissed me, and then she sighed,
And her head fell on my neck, and she wept,
For the little boy that died.

And when I gazed on his innocent face,
As still and cold he lay,
And thought what a lovely child he had been,
And how soon he must decay;
"Oh, death, thou lovest the beautiful,"
In the woe of my spirit I cried;
For the sparkling eyes, and the forehead was fair,
Of the little boy that died!

Again I will go to my father's house,
Go home to the dear ones all,
And sadly I'll open the garden gate
And sadly the door of the hall;
I shall meet my mother, but never more
With her darling by her side;
But she'll kiss me and sigh and weep again
For the little boy that died.

I shall miss him when the flowers come
In the garden where he played;
I shall miss him more by the fireside,
When the flowers have all decayed;
I shall see his toys and his empty chair,
And the horse he used to ride;
And they will speak with a silent speech,
Of the little boy that died.

I shall see his little sister again,
With her playmates about the door,
And I'll watch the children in their sports,
As I never did before;
And if in the group I see a child
That's dimple and laughing eyed,
I'll look to see if it may not be
The little boy that died.

We shall all go home to our Father's house—
To our Father's house in the skies,
Where the hope of our souls shall have no blight,
And our love no broken ties;
We shall roam on the banks of the River of Peace,
And bathe in its blissful tide;
And one of the joys of our heaven shall be
The little boy that died.

And therefore, when I am sitting alone,
And the midnight hour is hear,
When the faggot's crack, and the clock's dull tick,
Are the only sounds I hear,
Oh sweet o'er my soul in its solitude
Are the feelings of sadness that glide,
Though my heart, and my eyes are full when I think
Of the little boy that died.

Words of Wisdom.—Will they be Heeded?

"I do not deny the power of the people to do what they will. Undoubtedly, they may tear down their temples and tribunals and murder their teachers and their magistrates. They have a physical force to abolish their laws and to trample on the institutions of their forefathers. But, remember, the man who pulled down the building, and buried himself in its ruins, was blind as well as strong. The quality of an immoral act is not altered, the guilt of an enormous crime is not diminished, by the numbers that concur in it. The moment the people did these things they would cease to be a nation. To destroy their Constitution is beyond their competence. It is the inheritance of the unborn as well as theirs. What we received from our ancestors we are morally and religiously bound, as well as by our laws, to transmit to our posterity. Of such erroneous violence on the part of the people I know there is no danger. Will they suffer any other power to do in their name that which they cannot and ought not to do for themselves? I heard it from Lord Chatham that power without right is the most odious and detestable object that can be offered to the human imagination. It is, at once, 'res detestabilis et caduca.' Let who will assume such power, it ought to be resisted. Brave men meet their fate; cowards take flight, and die for fear of death."—[Sir Philip Francis, in 1811.]

Arkansas and the Constitutional Amendment.

The following is the substance of the report of the Senate committee of the Arkansas Legislature, which accompanies the resolution to reject the constitutional amendment:

First. That the State of Arkansas does not know that the amendment was adopted by a Congress such as is provided for by the Constitution, as nearly one-third the States were not represented therein when the amendment was passed.

Second. It never was submitted to the President for his sanction, as it should have been, according to the very letter of the Constitution under which Congress exists, and which it has sought to amend.

Third. The enormous power sought to be conferred, by giving authority to Congress to enforce the provisions of the amendment, would take from the States all control over local and domestic concerns, and virtually abolish the States.

Fourth. The second section seems to be an effort to force negro suffrage on the States, whether intended or not, and gives Congress the power to bring this about, whether the States consent or not.

Fifth. The third section, as an act of disfranchisement of the wisest and best citizens of the State, must be rejected. The people, having performed all the conditions of the surrender and general amnesty, are entitled to restoration to the Union, as before the war.

There is no reason to believe that the adoption of the amendment would secure restoration, and, if it would, they recommend a quiet and dignified course of endurance, rather than to purchase it at the sacrifice of principle, dignity and self-respect.

TERRITORIALIZING GOVERNMENTS.—The New York World says: "The effect of Territorializing Governments is a purely hypothetical question. If such Governments are enacted, the Supreme Court will set them aside as repugnant to the Constitution, and things revert to their present condition. The threat may safely be treated with scorn. The choice does not lie between the ratification of the amendment and Territorial Governments, but between ratification and the risk of a long exclusion from Congress."

Thad. Stevens proposes to destroy the State of Maryland which never did secede. The Radicals only hold Pennsylvania by a hair, and when that breaks he will probably desire to dissolve the Keystone.—Albany Argus.

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and Instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Letters.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute, in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army.

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified. By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.
